

Dewey R. Dedrick, Jr. Award Nomination

The Dewey R. Dedrick, Jr. Award is presented to the ASSE chapter that has shown the best all-around performance based on the categories of meetings, management, membership and promotion. Consideration is given to the number of new members gained, the number of members lost, the number and type of meetings held during the year, financial responsibility, participation in local efforts affecting the industry, efficiency of communications between local and national affairs, promotion of ASSE International standards to local and state authorities, sales and promotions of ASSE International publications and other activities that develop enthusiasm and progress on the chapter level.

Chapter: _____ Chapter President: _____

Board members:

Total number of members: _____ Number of new members: _____

Number of lost members: _____ Number of chapter meetings per year: _____

Number of delegates who attend the Annual Meeting: _____

Chapter newsletter and website (description, content, link to examples):

Trade/product show (description, number of attendees, etc.):

Social functions (description, number of attendees, etc.):

Promotion of ASSE and its programs:

Promotion of the plumbing and mechanical industries:

In a 200-250 words, describe why this chapter is deserving of this award:

PLEASE RETURN NOMINATION FORMS TO THE ASSE INTERNATIONAL OFFICE:

general.info@asse-plumbing.org | 18927 Hickory Creek Drive, Suite 220, Mokena, Illinois 60448

Nominator information:

Name: _____ Are you a member of ASSE? Yes No
Chapter: _____ Membership number: _____